

The Way It Was

A History of the Oxfordshire
Cotswolds in Old
Photographic Postcards

Derek James Bason
&
Gregory Lee Bason

The Way It Was

Deddington, around 1923. The young man second from the left is Mr Allen Course, who was born at nearby Deddington Mill. In 1932 the fire engine was housed at the town hall, which was convenient for the town well. It had previously been kept in a building on the Green.