

Presentation of Deddington Letters Patent
by
Sir Ashley Ponsonby Bt., KCVO, MC.
Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire

++
Saturday 16th April, 1994

++
Parish Church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul

++

- 10.40am Church Bells ring as a welcome
Organ plays in the Church, selections from Handel, Vaughan Williams & Elgar
- 11.00am People including special guests to be seated
- 11.00am Trumpet Fanfare
MC asks all to stand and announces the arrival of the Parish Councillors at the south door of the church welcomed by the Vicar.
Councillors process to their seats on the platform
- 11.07am Trumpet Fanfare
Ceremonial party arrives at the west door of the church welcomed by the Vicar.
MC announces Names and Titles of the party who process to the platform
- 11.15am National Anthem
- 11.17am Chairman of the Parish Council, Mr Terry Clinch, welcomes the ceremonial party with an introductory speech and ask Chester Herald, Hubert Chesshyre Esq. L.V.O. to present "Letters Patent" ("Arms") to the Lord Lieutenant. Chester Herald makes a speech and presents the "Arms". The Lord Lieutenant makes a short speech and hands the "Arms" to the Chairman of the Council, who will respond.
- 11.45am The Chairman invites the Bishop of Dorchester to Bless and Dedicate the "Arms"
- 11.50am Photocall to record the event
- 12 noon Chairman thanks the Lord Lieutenant and the Bishop and invites the Ceremonial Party to proceed the Town Hall
Trumpet Fanfare as the ceremonial party leaves the platform
Bells to ring
Organ will play Crown Imperial by William Walton
The Ceremonial Party will be followed by the Special Guests and then the rest of those present
- 12 noon Guard of Honour outside the Church as the Ceremonial Party emerge and walk to the Town Hall
- 12.15pm Trumpet Fanfare
Chairman invites the Lord Lieutenant to unveil the Coat of Arms on the south wall of the Town Hall
- 12.20pm Chairman invites the Lord Lieutenant to declare the "Pudd'n'Pie Fair" open.

*****