

Macaws on the loose

Two talking macaws called Grenville and Jacko are loose in the Banbury area and may die if they fail to return home for their special diet.

The birds, one red and blue and the other blue and yellow, belong to Mrs. Grace Washington, of Hempton.

Anyone seeing the birds is asked to phone Deddington 420.