PAXTON AND HOLIDAY

ON THE PREMISES,

On Saturday, Oct. 1, 1892, at 11 o'clock to the minute,

By direction of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the Farm being let from Michaelmas.

This is a very healthy, good lot of Stock, and the Machinery and many of the Implements are almost equal to new.

Luncheon will be provided at 1s. 6d. per head, which sum will be returned to Purchasers of £1 and upwards.

Catalogues may be had at the Roebuck and Railway Hotels, Oxford; "Bear," Woodstock; "Crown," Brackley; Inns in the district; or of the Auctioneers, Bicester, Banbury, Deddington and Chipping Norton.

T. W. PANKHURST, PRINTER, BICESTER.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

—o—

I.—The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and in case of dispute between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute shall be put up again at a former bidding and re-sold.

II.—No person shall retract a bidding, nor advance less at any bidding than such a sum as will be named by the Auctioneers at the time of sale. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse a bidding.

III.—The Purchaser of each lot shall take to the same with all faults and errors of description; and immediately after the sale, or at the fall of the hammer, if required, pay the purchase money thereof to the Auctioneers, except it be for the Corn, upon which he shall pay a deposit of £20 per cent. in part payment, and give approved joint security, within one week from the auction, if required, for payment of the remainder, at the expiration of two months from the day of Sale.

IV.—To avoid mistakes, no lot must on any account whatever be taken away until delivered by the person who will attend for that purpose; neither can any lot be delivered in the hours of sale, without the express permission of the Auctioneers.

LASTLY.—If any Purchaser neglect or fail to comply with these conditions, the lot or lots purchased by him shall be re-sold, either by public auction or private contract, and the loss (if any) thereby occasioned, together with any expense attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter at this present sale, and in case of non-payment thereof on demand, shall be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.
