

ALBAN SALMON, New Street, aged 70 years .. "whom God called away on August 28th. (1888) was an excellent man of business and, what he undertook, he did thoroughly. He filled the office of Parish Churchwarden and was an advocate and supporter of what was for the benefit and improvement of both people and the place. He was very anxious to see the town thoroughly paved, and the East Window of the Parish Church filled with Stained Glass..."
