

Graves in the Churchyard

Commonwealth War Grave Commision headstones - WWI

The CWGC erected headstones at the graves of those who died as a consequence of war. Those in Deddington are in the New Churchyard in which the War Memorial is also located. The New Churchyard is an extension to the east of the original one.

The New Churchyard

Private W L French

Private O A J H Dore

Private B Wheeler

Private A C Ell

Private A J Castle

Gravestones from WWII

Private W C Coulton

He was in the 1st Battalion Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry. His name is not on the War Memorial. A family could choose its own headstone.

Private J R F Gilkes

He was in the 1st Battalion Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry. He is buried in Brouay War Cemetery, France and named on the War Memorial.

