Communications

The Deddington News continues to publish monthly but is an online edition only until social distancing is further relaxed. Those with relatives or friends who do not have access to the online version might wish to print off copies for them. June edition due out 28 May.

Deddington on line – look on our local information website deddington.org.uk for more information, past and present copies of these newsletters and Deddington News.

Facebook (search “Deddington Response”) for up-to-date information, this weekly newsletter and links to useful sites. For general local news and comments see Deddington Community Notice Board

Please note that this newsletter will not be published next week; however all support and help will operate as normal, and will continue to be provided until the country is back to normal.

Citizen’s Advice Tel: 0300 330 9037

More takeaway food outlets now open

There is a list of local take-away food services overleaf; please support our local businesses.

A message from Rev Annie:

Dear Friends,

I hope that you and your families are managing to keep safe and well. In order for us all to stay that way, it is really important that we continue to practice social distancing as the lockdown gradually eases. Things are already beginning to change. For one thing, I am allowed to go into church again, both for private prayer and to lead services, as we are one of the fortunate churches to have provision for streaming services. I long for the day when we can open our church doors again to welcome those of you who simply want to sit quietly and soak up the atmosphere of our beautiful church.

Our school is also going to begin going back after half term. From 1 June, the early years, Year 1 and Year 6 are all invited to return. This is going to be a difficult transition for many reasons, and the school will give plenty of guidance of how this will work on the school premises. Outside of the school though, considerate parking would be much appreciated, especially at drop off and pick up time. Also, if you don’t have to be in the area of the school at those times, please avoid being there so that social distancing can be more easily practiced.

Paula (our Curate) and I continue to pray daily for our villages, and the family and friends of all who live here. So please stay safe and save lives.

With every blessing, Rev Annie

There are well over a hundred volunteers throughout the parish supporting the zone captains and parish council – many thanks to all.
