

War Memorial and Grave in the Churchyard of All Saints, Croughton

Private F Hawkins was in the Royal Army Service Corps. His parents lived in Croughton and his widow, Emily Teresa Hawkins, lived in Market Place, Deddington

The Croughton War Memorial stands in the north east corner of the churchyard

There are four Hawkins named on the Croughton Memorial. Fred and two of his brothers are on this face

His CWGC gravestone stands at the far west end of the churchyard. The inscription is hard to read because of lichen and weathering.
