IN PAST DAYS.

FROM THE 'ADVERTISER' 25 YEARS AGO. October 26th, 1895.—A serious fire occurred at the London and North-Western Railway Station, Banbury, having started in a shed used for heating water for foot-warmers.

FIFTY YEARS AGO. October 19th, 1870.—A puppy was born at the Angel Inn, Banbury, which was a black and white hound, with the exception of the fore part of the body from the neck.

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION. BANBURY RURAL COUNCIL MEETING. Mr. H. Butler presided at a meeting of the Banbury Rural District Council, which was held on Thursday.

FARMER SUEVED FOR PLOUGHING. A case of considerable interest to farmers was heard at Northampton County Court on Tuesday last week, before His Honour Judge Snagge, when the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, 72 Victoria Street, London, brought an action against Frank Robinson, farmer, of Lichborough, to recover £61 9s. 6d. for ploughing done by the Northampton Agricultural Executive Committee acting as its agents.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

SPRING SIDE SHOES. Spring side shoes are really more beautiful than an ugly sounding title would indicate...

A STARTLING MOON. Eleven hams seem to be a freak of the new modes. Some skirts dip at the front, others at the back...

CHEMISE SHOWS. Chemise frocks are proving the influence of the new waist-line and are being worn on the hips. Or perhaps it would be nearer the truth to say 'apparently' belted, for the waist-line is very often merely indicated by braid or embroidery.
