

DEDDINGTON.

The Fire Brigade Entertainment will take place on Wednesday next, and is under the patronage of most of the local gentry. There is an excellent programme, and a large house is expected.

VOLUNTEER MEETING.—The members of the Banbury Company and the Deddington Detachment will meet, on Monday next at Deddington; parade at 11.30, when the Detachment will meet the Company on the Banbury Road near the Schools, and the full band will be in attendance. An Adjutant's drill will take place in the Castle Grounds at one o'clock, after which the Volunteers will be entertained at luncheon in the pavilion by Captain Austin.

Oxford Journal - Saturday 24 April 1886 - Entertainment & Drill