

DEDDINGTON.

VESTRY.—There was a large meeting on Friday, April 30, the Vicar presiding, and Messrs. Kinch, Samman, Hedges, T. Bennett, Elston (Clifton), and Hollier (Hemp-ton) were re-appointed Churchwardens and Sidesmen. Mr. Joseph Ell was appointed sexton in the place of his father (deceased). A committee was appointed to revise and fix the charges for grave digging, &c. Mr. Risley, at the close of the vestry, congratulated the meeting on the unanimity and good feeling which had characterised the proceedings.

FIRE BRIGADE ENTERTAINMENT.—The result of this highly-successful meeting will place a substantial balance to the funds of the Brigade.
