

1
0
d
d
v
n
n y
d
n
-
r
s

FROM THE R.D.C. MEETINGS

Unsuitable Mortuary.—A report is to be made as to the possible further use of the old Fire Station at Deddington, which during the war was handed over to the police as a temporary emergency mortuary. The building, however, is not considered properly suitable for this purpose.