PHYSICIANS' HOUSEHOLD MEDICINES.—No. 3-4.

SIR JOHN SINCLAIR'S WALL'S COUGH AND VOICE LOZENGES, TOOTH, EAR, & FACE-ACHE TINCTURE, By being taken internally, at once affects the cause of these acute pains. In cases of Tooth-ache, it has only to be known to supplant the poisonous acids, corroding alkalies, and boring oil so much used, and to render the nervous and often dangerous operation of extraction unnecessary. This, and all the PHYSICIANS' HOUSEHOLD MEDICINES, should, on account of their being powerful, become as familiar as Household Wares.—Price 1s. 10d. per bottle.

PLANTS FOR BEDDING.

PREPARED ONLY BY THE SOLE PROPRIETOR,
JOSIAH J. WALL, Medical Hall, Market Place, Banbury.

George Wyatt's
REDUCED CATALOGUE of BEDDING PLANTS is now ready, and can be had on application. It comprises a Collection

EDUCATION.

MRS. GRANT and MRS. LITCHFIELD, in opening their ESTABLISHMENT for the EDUCATION of YOUNG LADIES, (on the premises lately occupied by Mr.
Fisher, North Bar Street, Banbury,) feel deeply the responsibility of the undertaking, and from a knowledge that ordinary routine will not develop the mental powers, and bring forward the talents of every child alike, intend preserving a system of Education in which the capabilities of each will be individually considered, and which they will have the cumulative advantage of numbers; their object will be to combine a high tone of Moral principle, with Religious and Mental cultivation.

School duties will commence July 24th, 1855.
