THE OXFORD AND ABINGDON
PERMANENT BENEFIT BUILDING SOCIETY,
(Established in March, 1851,)
HAS a SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL OF £100,000,
And advances Sums varying from £50 to £2000,
On Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold Property,
For periods of 3, 7, 10, 12, or 14 years,
Repayable by Monthly or Quarterly Instalments.

PURCHASERS of PROPERTY, through the aid of this Society, derive the following advantages: That nearly THE FULL VALUE is advanced.

That the amount is paid over without any deduction for legal or other charges, and the repayment made by easy instalments of monthly or quarterly repayments, at the option of the borrower.

That Purchasers cannot be disturbed in the possession of their Property during the term selected for repayment, although, on the other hand, they may sell or redeem at any time.

And when the advance is paid off or redeemed, the Trustees deliver up the Title Deeds, with their Certificate of Discharge, FREE OF EXPENSE.

A Copy of the Rules (price 6d.), and every information, may be obtained either on application to the Society's Solicitors, Messrs. Hester and Hazel, of Oxford, or at the Society's Offices, adjoining the Town Hall, Oxford.

ROBERT PIKE,
Oxford, August, 1862. Secretary.

ROYAL FARMERS'
AGRICULTURAL & COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY,
3, NORFOLK ST., STRAND, LONDON, W. C.

PERSONS insured by this Company have the security of an extensive and wealthy proprietary, as well as of an ample capital, always applicable to the payment of claims without delay, while those insured in Mutual Offices have usually no security, beyond that afforded by the premiums which may happen to be in hand; or are themselves liable to be called upon to contribute to the payment of the losses of others.

LIFE.—Life Insurances on moderate terms, by Policies payable to the registered holders. Four-fifths of the profits allowed to the assured.

VOLUNTEER RIFLE CORPS, &c.—No extra premium is required for Military Service of any description within the United Kingdom.

FIRE.—Fire insurances of every description at moderate rates.

HAIL INSURANCE—This was the first Office to introduce this means of protecting the interest of the Farmers.

RATES.—Wheat, Barley, Oats, and other ordinary Crops, without limitation as to quantity grown, 6d. per Acre.

BED.—A division of profits takes place every fifth year. The last was in 1861, when upwards of 66 per cent. was allowed to Insurers of the four previous years, and in proportion for less periods.

Losses paid immediately after the amounts have been ascertained.

Additional Agents wanted. Applications to be addressed to

JOHN REDDISH, ESQ., Secretary & Actuary.

PROTECTION TO STOCK KEEPERS.

NORFOLK FARMERS'
CATTLE INSURANCE SOCIETY.
Established in 1849. Incorporated by Act of Parliament.
HEAD OFFICES:
ST. GILES' STREET, NORWICH.
Branch Offices:—EDINBURGH, 23, St. Andrew Square.
DUBLIN, 46, Dame Street.

Every description of Horses, Cows, Cattle, Sheep, and Pigs, Insured against Death resulting from Disease or Accident, upon fair and liberal terms.

IMPORTANT ADVANTAGES.—Insurances may now be effected with this Society under which there will be no Deduction for loss by Anthrax—Pneumonia, Consumption, Inflammation, Black-Leg, or Fever.

Reduced Rates for Renewals where no loss has occurred during the year of Insurance.

Lower Premiums for whole Mixed Stocks of Horses, Cattle, &c., where the value exceeds £500.

No Subscribed Animals Insured without extra charge.

The Society has Agents in most of the principal Towns in the Kingdom, but where none are already acting, respectable persons will be appointed on application to the Secretary, at the Head Offices, ST. GILES' STREET, NORWICH.

CHARLES R. GILMAN, Secretary.

Insurances effected on application to the AGENT, JOSEPH PLOWMAN, 1, ST. ALDATE'S-ST., OXFORD, or INSPECTOR, DR. JAMES, CORN MARKET-ST., OXFORD.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY.
Head Offices—29, LOMBARD-ST., LONDON, and ROYAL INSURANCE BUILDINGS, LIVERPOOL.

The following is an epitome of the leading results shown at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, on the 8th inst.:—

FIRE BRANCH.

Large as the revenue under this Branch had become in preceding years, the year 1861 has produced a further increase of Fire Revenue, the Premiums having attained the sum of £292,402, being an increase in a single year of £28,402.

The Fire Revenue has more than doubled in the last six years, the total increase being upwards of £160,000, an advance by natural expansion, which is probably without parallel.

The Government Returns of Duty place the Royal, as respects increase of business, at the head of the Offices.

LIFE BRANCH.

The prominent feature is the increase and great amount of the new business transacted by this Company, the sum assured under new Policies alone for the past year amounting to £521,101; exceeding by £70,000 the new Insurances of the preceding year, which again had shown a great advance on its predecessors.

This large amount of business (and upon which the current year shows a yet further advance), is believed to result from public confidence, and from the signal advantage the Life Branch possesses in being so lightly burdened: the Fire Branch, from its magnitude, bearing by far the larger share of the general expenses of management, an advantage few Companies possess to the like extent.

The total paid-up Capital and Accumulated Funds of the Company were certified by the Auditors to amount to £846,000.

PERCY M. DOVE, Manager.
JOHN B. JOHNSTON, Secretary.
August, 1862.

AGENT FOR OXFORD.
