

JACKSON'S OXFORD JOURNAL1815-1819*References to Deddington, Clifton and Hempton

(1) Text in blue italic typeface denotes notices concerning Turnpike Trusts whose Clerk, or joint Clerk, was Samuel Churchill, junior.

Notices by the Banbury, Brailes and Shipston Turnpike Trust, of which Samuel Churchill, junior was joint Clerk, have not been transcribed.

(2) The overwhelming majority of notices and advertisements were repeated, sometimes many times. Notices by Turnpike Trusts would typically be repeated several or more times. Repeat notices and advertisements have not been recorded.

(3) Jackson's Oxford Journal had a tendency to refer to Clifton Hampden, between Abingdon and Dorchester-on-Thames, as Clifton, giving rise to the potential for confusion with Clifton in the parish of Deddington. Relevant newspaper entries have been interpreted in accordance with the context where possible.

On Wednesday last a Meeting was held in the National School, at Deddington, for the purpose of forming, for the Deaneries of Deddington and Chipping-Norton, a District Committee of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. The business of the Meeting having been opened by the Chairman, a letter was read from the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, expressive of his Lordship's approbation of the object of the Meeting, regretting his inability to give it his personal attendance, and enclosing a handsome donation towards the designs of the Committee. The resolutions, by which this Institution is to be regulated, were then discussed and agreed upon. A plan was also arranged, which it is hoped will be effectual in affording to the lower orders increased facilities towards the attainment of religious knowledge, and in giving a more diffusive circulation to the Books and Tracts published by the Society. The attendance at the Meeting was very numerous and highly respectable: among those present were the Earl of Normanton, the Hon. F.S.N. Douglas (in the Chair), G.F. Stratton, Esq. W. Wilson, Esq. C.O. Bowles, Esq. D. Stuart, Esq. Major Perrott, together with many other respectable Laymen, and the greater part of the Clergy residing in the District. The business of the day being concluded, a subscription was opened, in which many highly respectable names, and liberal contributions, were immediately inserted.
